About Membership Categories

The membership categories are defined by the CCI National Board of Directors. There are three representing those categories other than the Condominium Corporations:

Professional

This group includes all those individuals who earn a portion or all of their income from providing professional services to the condominium industry, for example, lawyers, accountants, engineers, condominium managers, real estate agents or brokers, appraisers, insurance brokers, etc. The membership and benefits belong to the named professional only.

Professional members can apply to become Associates of the Canadian Condominium Institute, a national designation, via CCI National [website www.cci.ca] If they are successful in meeting the qualifications and completing a challenging exam, these members are entitled to use the designation ACCI.

Business Partner

Any corporation (other than one that would qualify for a condominium or professional membership), partnership, sole proprietorship, government agency, investment firm, lending institution, advertising company, or other business entity involved in the condominium industry. Each business designates a "member representative" to cast their vote and receive information from CCI. The membership and benefits are shared with the employees of the business partner membership

Individual

Persons who have an interest in the condominium community can become individual members. This group of members includes condominium owners, authors, and professors. The membership and benefits belong to the named individual only.

The CCI Member will receive the following:

- ✓ the quarterly newsletter of the CCI London and Area Chapter - the CCI Review;
- ✓ the annual Professional Service & Trades Directory; and
- ✓ the quarterly CM Magazine from the Association of Condominium Managers (ACMO)
- ✓ opportunities to advertise in publications and at events
- ✓ more as we grow and develop
- ✓ access information to the CCI National website (for members only) will be provided
